Each contestant should be mindful that she is representing her hometown, her hometown rodeo, and the Miss Beef Empire Days Pageant and the sport of Professional Rodeo. Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. It could result in the contestant being disqualified and may affect further eligibility to compete in the Miss Rodeo Beef Empire

Days Pageant.

18. The pageant committee tries to make this a fun experience but we need your help. Coming with a good attitude will help. We also know how unnerving this can be and we will help in any way we can.

BE SURE TO READ ALL RULES AND REGULATIONS

MISS RODEO BEEF EMPIRE DAYS
JUDGING GUIDELINES

- A. Miss Rodeo Beef Empire Days is judged in four categories; knowledge, personality, horsemanship and appearance. Judges are selected for their expertise in all fields of the competition.
- B. Three judges will judge all categories of the Pageant. All three scores will be totaled and averaged for each contestant, each time they are judged.
 - a. The contestant receiving the highest grand total score for the days competition shall be crowned Miss Rodeo Beef Empire Days Queen/Princess/Little Miss. The contestant receiving the second highest grand total shall be first runner up. The contestant receiving the third highest grand total shall be second runner up.
 - b. Ties resulting in an event winners will be broken by referring back to Judge #1. Judge #1's score will break the tie. If a tie still remains, Judge #2's score will be used and so on until tie is broken. A tie for Miss Rodeo Beef Empire Days Queen/Princess/Little Miss, and runner up will be broken by the horsemanship scores, i.e. the contestant with the highest score in horsemanship will receive the higher ranking.
- C. Judges should all have an awareness of correct western dress, and should be experienced western-type horsewoman or horseman who are accustomed to judging horse events. "Horsepeople" who are familiar with correct western attire, and work with the public in everyday situations are normally a good choice for judges.
- D. The judges will have at least one private interview with each contestant. Pageant directors will be responsible for maintaining order and keeping succeeding contestant out of hearing range while the interview is being conducted. Questions of the contestants should pertain to all three facets of the contest, and a score for all four divisions - knowledge, appearance, personality, horsemanship - - is given at the end of interview.

- E. In each category during the interviews by judges, questions asked should be serious and thought provoking. Questions should be in depth so that the judges may determine the character and knowledge of each contestant whether they are being questioned on the sport of rodeo and related activities, horse science, or current events. Interview length should be sufficient for contestant and judges to communicate and not be 'uptight'. Private interviews should be conducted only with judges and contestants present, not exceeding 15 minutes. If needed, the timer is the only other person allowed during private interview.
- F. Each contestant is required to give a two (2) minute speech on rodeo, the sport of rodeo or Beef Empire Days Rodeo.
- G. Extemporaneous questions are asked of each contestant at one function and possibly two, these scores become part of the overall score.
- H. Each contestant is required to ride a horse in two (2) different go rounds of horsemanship competition. During each go round of horsemanship, each contestant is scored in all four divisions - knowledge, horsemanship, appearance, personality - taking into consideration the contestants appearance and the personality she projects from the horse.
- I. Scores for the contestants will be turned into the Pageant Committee after the event. The contestant receiving the highest score for the day will be crowned Miss Rodeo Beef Empire Days Queen/Princess/Little Miss. The second highest will be runner up.
- J. Judges should also have a resume containing pictures, judging aid, a brief list of hobbies and other activities on each contestant. These should be included in the judge's packet. Judging will take precedence over all pageant activities.

PAGEANT DIVISIONS

APPEARANCE

The purpose of this judging division is to select the contestant who rates highest in:

1. Attractiveness.
2. Grooming - this should include neatness and cleanliness in every detail such as complexion, hands, fingernails, hair, hat, boots and other wearing apparel. Meticulous care in general grooming is essential for a contestant to be considered as Miss Rodeo Beef Empire Days Queen/Princess.

3. Photogenic Quality - judges will have pictures (head & shoulder) of each contestant to study. A girl's strength of character and personality are reflected strongly in a wholesome appearance. The judges may have a final session of photo judging before handing in final score sheets.
4. Posture.
5. Poise and ladylike behavior in every situation.
6. Contestants awareness of what is fashionable western dress with particular attention given to color coordination (contestant should be aware of how the use of various color combinations can enhance appearance and eye appeal).
7. Judges will be observing how contestants clothing fits and suits her personality. This includes length of her trousers, the crease and shape of her hat as well as how she carries out the "total look". This is not a clothing contest. It is not necessary to invest in an excessive amount of expensive clothing. An outline of what to wear will be put in the wardrobe guidelines. Judges will be looking for versatility, and imagination displayed by the contestant.
8. Contestants will be required to describe the outfits they will be wearing and may be questioned on their familiarity of western wear.
9. Contestants should remove suit jackets properly.
10. Style Show Dress - will be dressy western outfit and a colored jeans outfit.
11. The purpose of the pageant is to choose a title winner who portrays the wholesome ideal young lady.

PERSONALITY

The purpose of this division is to select the contestant who rates the highest in:

1. Intelligence (good sense of humor).
2. Education - conversational ability in rodeo and other areas, with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation.
3. Conversational ability in varied areas.
4. Sense of humor.
5. Genuine interest in other people and noticeable consideration of others.
6. Projection (ability to project one's personality whether it be on horseback in the arena, on television, or before an audience).

7. Positive outlook on life in general.
8. Promptness in keeping pageant schedule.
9. Showmanship (being able to present oneself in a gracious manner).

HORSEMANSHIP

The purpose of this division is to select a contestant who rate highest in:

1. Horsemanship to include control of her mount and the way any situation, that may occur, is handled.
2. Balance the ability to sit in the saddle.
3. Position on hands, feet and seat.
4. Mounting and dismounting.
5. The understanding and the skill of the contestant will be judged and not the horse or the equipment.
6. Each contestant may be interviewed on each of the following categories: knowledge of tack, horse care, feeding, disease, anatomy, etc., knowledge of Professional Rodeo, its history - organization - rodeo terminology or vernacular - awareness of PRCA championships and goings on in the ProRodeo World (an excellent source of information is the ProRodeo Sports News published twice monthly by the PRCA Rule Book), write PRCA, 101 ProRodeo Drive, Colorado Springs, CO 80919 for information.
7. Pattern - there will be two (2) go rounds of horsemanship competition. Patterns to be used will be from the diagrams found in this book. At the discretion of the judges committee, patterns may be altered due to arena conditions. Contestants may also be required to dismount and remount, carry a flag and/or perform additional maneuvers on horseback. Contestants may or may not be asked to do a presentation ride following completion of one of their patterns. Any changes and/or alternations to the horsemanship patterns will be announced to the contestants before the horsemanship competition begins. The reigning Miss Rodeo Beef Empire Days Queen/Princess will set the pattern.
8. Dress wear for horsemanship: colored or blue denim western cut jeans, western blouse or shirt with long sleeves. Any color accessories may be used (hat, boot, belt), gloves are optional. Chaps and spurs are not permitted. All riding attire should be neat and fit properly. Showmanship should be considered.

9. Faults in pageant are: losing hat, losing stirrups, omitting part of horsemanship pattern.
11. During the Queen/Princess/Little run, contestants should prepare to present the salute or the wave.

KNOWLEDGE

The purpose of this division is to select the contestant who rates the highest in:

1. Intelligence: Response to questions asked by judges on tack, horse care, feeding, disease, anatomy, etc., knowledge of Professional Rodeo, it's history - organization - rodeo terminology or vernacular - awareness of PRCA champions and current events in the ProRodeo world.
2. Conversational Ability: In Rodeo and other areas, with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation. Response to Impromptu question and during personal interview, showing maturity, intelligence, wisdom and imagination.
3. Speech: Two (2) minute on Rodeo, Sport of Rodeo, or Beef Empire Days Rodeo. Along with creativity, contents and correct grammar.

WARDROBE GUIDELINES

1. The competition includes horsemanship, speech, fashion show, interviews, and coronation ceremony. It may also include other events.
2. Style show clothing should consist of two (2) outfits. Western dress or skirt outfit should be made in a western style with color to show up on stage. Also a colored jeans and shirt outfit for modeling.
3. Contestants may wear same colored jeans and shirt outfit for interviews that was worn for style show.
4. Outfit for Queen/Princess/Little Miss contestants for grand entry at the evening performances of the rodeo, should consist of jeans, long sleeve blouse, boots and hat, with color to show up as you round the arena.
5. The speech outfit should be a dressy western outfit.
6. Horsemanship wardrobe should consist of jeans of any style or color with coordinating long sleeve shirt that should be tucked in. Chaps are not permitted.

7. Contestants shall wear no personal crowns or banners. The pageant will provide contestant numbers for each contestant, they must be worn at all times.
8. Contestants shall not wear fashion heels. Boots to be worn at all times.
9. Long sleeved shirts are required at all times. NO cleavage and nothing bra-less. Proper slips under clothing.
10. Boot and skirt heights compatible and all split skirts in good taste.
11. Baggy or poorly tailored pant or jackets are not allowed.
12. Contestants should use good judgment in selection of her wardrobe. Western hat, boots and belts should accompany all outfits. This is not a clothing contest so we recommend you wear an outfit more than one time to defray cost.
